Dear Mr. Burke:

Let me say that I am thoroughly impressed by your guest this evening, Mr. Weisburg, and his views on the assassination of our President.

I would like to know where I may purchase a copy of "Whitewash," as my local bookstores are either too nervous or too prudent to stock the book. Would you please give me the address where I might send for it and the price and handling charges.

For the sake of TV, do keep up the good work!
